

Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC)

The Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) process is ongoing within DoD's current authorities, and the Administration continues to ask for a Congressionally authorized formal BRAC. This requires that military communities better support their military base to increase its military value. This, in turn, requires expert strategic planning, an understanding of U.S. military and Congressional objectives, as well as business, community, state and local government expertise to map, navigate and implement the best path forward.

The BRAC Team at The SPECTRUM Group (TSG), with 20-plus years of experience supporting states and communities, is comprised of top BRAC experts, including former BRAC commissioners, key senior staff members, senior Congressional staff, senior military leaders, and senior staff officers from all military branches.

Since 2012, the BRAC Team has partnered with The Principi Group – headed by the Chairman of the 2005 BRAC Commission, the Honorable Anthony J. Principi – to support clients in meeting their strategic goals and objectives.

The Team supports our clients in four capability areas spanning the BRAC process lifecycle: comprehensive SWOT assessments; BRAC preparation; BRAC representation; and post-BRAC assistance. We have worked with numerous installations, communities and organizations in dozens of states, supporting analysis, strategic planning, strategic partnerships, representation, implementation and advocacy.

Our mission is our clients' success. Visit our website to learn more and to meet our BRAC team: www.spectrumgrp.com.

Client Services

- Comprehensive Assessments: Conduct SWOT assessments for military installations and communities, making recommendations to best focus limited resources to enhance military value.
- BRAC Preparation: Develop and implement engagement strategies for bases, states and communities, including cost-reduction, relationship-building, compatible use planning, and value-enhancing public-private partnerships.
- BRAC Representation: TSG's BRAC Team partners with our clients during BRAC rounds to protect and grow the client's military installation.
- Post-BRAC Assistance: Support strategic plan implementation when bases are retained. The Team has also been directly involved in implementing the civilian reuse of major bases closed during previous closure rounds.
